

I chose XM radio since I am a long haul trucker and don't like switching stations every 50 miles. I depend on the weather and news that they provide and I would never consider switching back to broadcast radio. Why do I need to suffer through commercials for a market that I am just passing through and can't stop anyway.

D L Sebring